

NOTICE

Canyon College of Idaho, Inc. ("Canyon College") is not an Idaho-registered proprietary school or postsecondary educational institution. Canyon College's proprietary school registration expired on June 30, 2013. Canyon College was found to be operating in violation of the terms of its now-expired registration by purporting to grant degrees. On June 25, 2013, the Idaho State Board of Education ordered Canyon College to immediately cease improperly awarding degrees in violation of Idaho Code Title 33, Chapter 24, and that Canyon College immediately desist from future violations of the statute. The State Board of Education has also made a successful claim against Canyon College's bond and the Board will be administering claims for injured students.

How much restitution is available to students?

The amount of the bond claim was $15,000.

Who is eligible to receive restitution?

You may be eligible for a partial refund of tuition paid if:

1. You paid tuition and completed the course work for an academic course or courses from Canyon College from June 13, 2011 through June 30, 2013; or
2. You were awarded a "degree" from Canyon College from June 13, 2011 through June 30, 2013.

Certain people are not eligible to receive restitution, as follows:

Students who paid tuition and completed course work for non-academic, non-credit courses or programs from June 13, 2011 through June 30, 2013. For example, course work for a certificate or training for an occupation for which licensure may be required is not eligible for restitution.

How do I apply for restitution?

Please send a copy of your Canyon College transcript (and diploma if applicable) and the amount paid to Canyon College for said coursework to:

State Coordinator for Private Colleges & Proprietary Schools
Office of the State Board Of Education
650 W State St., Suite 307
Boise, ID 83720-0037

Deadline

All claims must be received by close of business Thursday, November 1, 2013.

How much restitution can I get?

At this time, it is unknown how much an individual will receive in restitution.

When will I receive my money?

The date for distribution of funds from the bond has not yet been determined.
