

September 12, 2003

"IDAHO'S GOLD" Education News Magazine Featuring Idaho's Educators and Students to Air Second Video

"IDAHO'S GOLD" Education News Magazine Featuring Idaho's Educators and Students to Air Second Video

Boise - The Idaho State Board of Education announced today that "Idaho's Gold," the second video documentary featuring just a few of Idaho's exceptional teachers in their classrooms working with their students, will air across the state next week.

The video news magazine features Idaho's students and educators from kindergarten classes to college student teaching programs. Classrooms in central Idaho, southwest Idaho and North Idaho were recorded for the program.

"Idaho's children are Idaho's gold," said Jim Hammond, Idaho's MOST Chair and Vice President of the Idaho State Board of Education. "I believe deeply in the importance of teaching. It is time to elevate respect for this profession, and this broadcast on television stations throughout the state is a fitting affirmation of the teaching profession."

The schedule of air times throughout the state is as follows:

KTVB - Boise and the Southwest

September 16th at 8:30pm

September 21st at 4:00pm

KTFT - Twin Falls and the Magic Valley

September 16th at 8:30pm

September 21st at 4:00pm

KPVI - Pocatello and East Idaho

September 19th at 12:30pm

September 20th at 6:00pm

KREM - North Idaho and the Inland Empire

September 22nd at 6:30pm