STATE BOARD TO HOLD SPECIAL MEETING ON TUITION ISSUE

BOISE - The Idaho State Board of Education will hold a special meeting February 3 at 2 p.m. MST to discuss legislation to allow Boise State University, Idaho State University and Lewis-Clark State College the ability to charge tuition.

State Board members unanimously approved the tuition concept at their January 24th meeting. During the special meeting on February 3, Board members will consider specific legislation for their endorsement. If the Board approves the legislation, it will be forwarded to the Legislature.

The Board will also consider a change to Idaho code relating to pre-kindergarten school services.
