BOARD TO MEET THIS WEEK AT UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO

(Boise). The Idaho State Board of Education will meet this Wednesday and Thursday, April 16-17, 2014, in Moscow on the campus of the University of Idaho. The meeting, which is open to the public, will be held in the Student Union Ballroom.

For those who cannot attend in person, the meeting will be streamed via the web at www.uidaho.edu/newsevents/uidaholive. The link will be live starting at approximately 8:45 a.m. on Wednesday, April 16. You can also follow the events of this meeting on Facebook or Twitter.

On Wednesday, the Board will set tuition and fees for the upcoming academic year for the four-year public higher education institutions and Eastern Idaho Technical College. Thursday's agenda includes a progress report from University of Idaho, a discussion of the Board's policy on campus security, and an update from Superintendent of Public Instruction Tom Luna. The Board will also elect new officers on Thursday.

The meeting agenda and materials are available at http://www.boardofed.idaho.gov/meetings/board/archive/2014/04_16-17_14/index.asp.
