

North Idaho College

1. Type of Institution

North Idaho College is a regional, comprehensive community college providing the first two years of undergraduate education and embraces an open-door policy for all citizens. As a comprehensive community college, North Idaho College's emphasis is academic transfer, vocational technical education, workforce training, continuing education and developmental education. As an open-door institution, all students may access various components of educational offerings to meet their individual educational goals.

2. Programs and Services*

Associate Education: Offers a wide range of associate degrees and some qualified professional programs

Technical and Workforce Training: Offers a wide range of vocational, technical and outreach programs

Certificates/Diplomas: Offers a wide range of certificates and diplomas

Continuing Education: Provides a variety of life-long learning opportunities

Distance Learning: Uses a variety of delivery methods to meet the needs of diverse constituencies

Baccalaureate Education: Facilitates a wide range of baccalaureate degrees delivered by other institutions

Graduate: None

Research: None

3. Constituencies Served

The institution serves students, business and industry, the professions and public sector groups throughout the region as well as diverse and special constituencies. North Idaho College works in collaboration with other state and regional postsecondary institutions in serving these constituencies.

* Programs and Services are listed in order of emphasis.