FINALISTS NAMED IN LCSC PRESIDENT SEARCH

Five finalists have been named from a list of 63 candidates who applied to become Lewis-Clark State College's next president. The finalists were selected from a list of ten semifinalists interviewed earlier this week by the LCSC Presidential Search Committee.

Listed in alphabetical order, the finalists are:

- Cynthia Pemberton, EdD - Vice President for Academic Affairs, Colorado Mesa University
- Kristin Poppo, PhD - Provost, Alfred State College
- Graydon Stanley - Vice President of Student Services, North Idaho College
- Brock Tessman, PhD - Dean of Davidson Honors College, University of Montana
- Robbyn Wacker PhD - Senior Campaign Advisor for Development and Alumni Relations, University of Northern Colorado

Arrangements are underway for the candidates to visit Lewis-Clark State College in Lewiston and its campus in Coeur d'Alene between March 19 and March 23, 2018.

Open forums are planned for students, faculty, staff and the public to meet and hear from the finalists. There will also be an opportunity to provide feedback about the candidates.

Additional information about the search, including finalist information and campus visit itineraries will be posted on the LCSC website: <http://www.lcsc.edu/presidential-search/>
