SCREENING COMMITTEE NAMED FOR UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO PRESIDENT SEARCH

Idaho State Board of Education Member Emma Atchley today announced the names of people selected to serve on the 12-member screening committee that will vet candidates and recommend finalists vying to become the University of Idaho's next president.

“We have faculty, student, staff, alumni and community representatives serving on the screening committee and I thank them for their willingness to serve,” Atchley said. “Board Member Don Soltman and I think we have the right people in place to help the State Board find an exceptional president to lead the University of Idaho into the future.”

The University of Idaho President Search Screening Committee members are:

- Emma Atchley – Board Member and screening committee chair
- Don Soltman – Board Member
- Nicole Skinner – ASUI Student Body President
- Linda Davidson – Alumni
- Kathy Barnard – Assistant Vice President of Alumni Relations (staff representative)

- Aaron Johnson – Faculty Senate Chair
- Chris Meyer – Coeur d’Alene Tribal Member
- Holly Wichman – Faculty Member
- Lee Ostrom – Interim Center Executive Director (Idaho Falls)
- Sydney Freeman – Faculty Member
- Stephen Parrott – Alumni
- Holly Koole – Alumni

The University of Idaho President Search Screening Committee will hold its first meeting early this month. The University will soon establish a webpage with updated information on the search progress.

The firm Storbeck Pimentel & Associates will lead the search, working with the screening committee and the State Board. The Board plans to name a new president sometime early next year and have that person in place at the University of Idaho by the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1, 2019.
