BOARD TO MEET ON MARCH 20

The Idaho State Board of Education will hold a special Board meeting on Wednesday, March 20, at 1 p.m. (MDT).

The meeting will occur at the Board office at 650 West State Street 3rd floor, Boise.

Immediately after convening the meeting, the Board will go into executive session to discuss university president searches.

A vote is not scheduled. Idaho law requires the Board to give 24 hours' notice before a meeting can be held and a vote taken. A vote to appoint a new president must occur in open session.

Last week, the Board interviewed president finalists both for the University of Idaho and Boise State University.
