BOARD TO HOLD SPECIAL MEETING MAY 23th

The Idaho State Board of Education will hold a special meeting via teleconference on Thursday, May 23, 2019.

The meeting will originate at the Board office in downtown Boise at 650 W. State Street, third floor starting at 2:30 p.m. MDT.

The purpose of the meeting is to consider a proposal from the Board's Division of Career Technical Education to adopt a one-year transition plan to implement the Federal Government's new career technical education program approved unanimously by Congress last year. The program, known as the Carl D. Perkins V Act requires each state to develop new plans to comply with requirements outlined in the Act in order to receive federal funding.

Those wishing to listen to the Board meeting can call (877) 820-7829, Public Participant Code: 9096313
