BOARD TO MEET NEXT WEEK AT LEWIS-CLARK STATE COLLEGE

The Idaho State Board of Education will meet October 16 – 17, 2019 in the Williams Conference Center (4th Street and 9th Avenue) at Lewis-Clark State College in Lewiston.

Meeting start times are as follows:

- 10 a.m. (PDT) – Wednesday, October 16
- 8 a.m. (PDT) – Thursday, October 17

The full meeting agenda with materials is posted on the State Board of Education website: <https://boardofed.idaho.gov/event/board-meeting-lewiston/>

Agenda items include:

- Consider a temporary rule outlining requirements for school districts and charter schools to report student enrollment full-time equivalencies.
- Hear information pertaining to the update to the existing literacy growth targets, timeframes and methods for measuring progress using the new version of the Idaho Reading Indicator.
- Consider amending Board policy to require institutions to prioritize programs using evaluation criteria and specific reporting requirements and to submit a report to the Board at least every five years, with annual updates on the implementation of action items.

The Idaho State Board of Education is charged with the general supervision and governance of the public education institutions and the public school system of the State of Idaho. To learn more, please visit the Board website:
