BOARD TO MEET THIS WEEK AT BOISE STATE UNIVERSITY

The Idaho State Board of Education will meet February 12-13, 2020 at Boise State University in the Simplot Ballroom on the second floor of the Student Union Building.

Start times are as follows:

- 10:00 a.m. MST – Wednesday, February 12
- 8:00 a.m. MST - Thursday, February 13

The full meeting agenda with materials is posted on the State Board of Education website: <https://boardofed.idaho.gov/event/board-meeting-boise-3/>

Agenda items include:

- The Board will take action on a report from the Career Technical Education Work Group, which recommends a series of short and long-term objectives for strengthening CTE instruction in Idaho.
- Board will discuss Idaho’s high school graduation requirements and whether the requirements should be adjusted to include multiple graduation pathways in areas such as career technical education and math/STEM focused instruction.

- Consider a request by Boise State University to purchase a building near the campus to use for non-academic functions and to free up more space on campus for academic purposes.
- The Board will review goals outlined in Idaho's Every Student Succeeds Act and consider whether the goals should be adjusted.

The Idaho State Board of Education is charged with the general supervision and governance of the public educational institutions and the public school system of the State of Idaho.
