TODAY’S BOARD MEETING CANCELLED

The special Idaho State Board of Education meeting scheduled for today has been cancelled.

The purpose of the meeting was to consider approval of a temporary rule establishing achievement level descriptors commonly referred to as “cut scores” for the science standards used in the Idaho Standards Achievement Test (ISAT) and the Idaho Alternate Assessment Achievement Standards.

The agenda item will be addressed during the regular Board meeting scheduled October 19 -20, 2022 at Lewis-Clark State College in Lewiston.
