The meeting agenda, and materials are posted on the State Board website:

Agenda Items include:

- Consideration of a University of Idaho proposal to change the name of the Kibbie Dome to the “P1FCU Kibbie Dome” per an agreement the U of I P1FCU. If approved by the Board, P1FCU would hold naming rights for 10 years, resulting in $5 million in revenue for the University of Idaho.
- Consider using $450,000 in federal ARP ESSER SEA funds to pilot hiring reading coaches to assist students attending rural and underserved school districts in Region 4.

- Consider a University of Idaho request to officially change the legal name of the not-for-profit corporation created in the University of Phoenix transaction from NewU, Inc. to Idaho Education Initiatives, Inc. The University of Idaho formed the nonprofit as part of its plan to purchase the University of Phoenix and operate it separately from the U of I. University of Idaho officials learned after the proposal became public that their original name for the nonprofit corporation is already utilized by another entity.
