FACULTY MEMBER JOINS BOISE STATE PRESIDENT SEARCH COMMITTEE; STAKEHOLDER SUBCOMMITTEES FORMED

Dr. Lisa Bostaph, professor of Criminal Justice at Boise State University, will serve as the faculty representative on the Boise State President Search Committee announced last week.

In addition, five subcommittees have been formed representing various Boise State stakeholder groups. Each subcommittee includes a search committee member and will interact and collect input from campus community members.

The Boise State President Search Subcommittees are:

Administration and Staff

- Mark Wheeler – Boise State Dean of Extended Studies, Subcommittee Chair
- Lisa Grow – Idaho Power Company, Search Committee Member

Alumni

- Abbie Belthoff – Boise State Alumni Board President, Subcommittee Chair
- Mike Reynoldson – Blue Cross of Idaho, Search Committee Member

Faculty

- Laurie Cavey – Boise State Faculty Senate President, Subcommittee Chair
- Lisa Bostaph – Boise State Professor, Search Committee Member
- Bobbi-Jo Meuleman – CEO Boise Metro Chamber of Commerce, Search Committee Member

Foundation and Athletics

- Tommy Ahlquist - Boise State Foundation Member, Subcommittee Co-Chair
- Jeramiah Dickey – Boise State Athletic Director, Subcommittee Co-Chair
- Bruce Mohr – Chair, Boise State Foundation, Search Committee Member

Students

- Isaac Celedon – ASBSU President, Subcommittee Co-Chair
- Ty Jordan – Boise State Student, Subcommittee Co-Chair
- Sydney Leitch – Boise State Student, Subcommittee Member
- Jeremiah Shinn – Boise State VP of Student Affairs, Search Committee Member

Each subcommittee will begin meeting immediately and add additional members, as necessary.

“Boise State University has been recognized as one of the most innovative institutions in the country and we expect a lot of interest from highly qualified individuals in becoming Boise State’s eighth president,” State Board of Education President Dr. Linda Clark said. “We have a strong team in place, and I am confident the search will result in a new Boise State president who will build on the momentum that has already established Boise State University as a nationally known institution of higher learning.”

Information about the president search will be posted here throughout the process:
