SEARCH FIRM NAMED; SEARCH OPENS FOR BOISE STATE UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Idaho State Board of Education President Kurt Liebich and fellow Board Member and Search Committee Chairman David Turnbull today announced that the Boise State University president position is open for applications.

The leadership advisory firm Russell Reynolds Associates has been selected to assist with the Boise State University president search. Founded in 1969, Russell Reynolds Associates has extensive experience in business and education sectors, working both with public and private higher education institutions. The firm will recruit candidates and assist the Boise State University President Search Committee throughout the process until finalists are named.

The official prospectus for the position has been publicly posted and interested candidates can learn more about the application process here:
